

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University
University Archives Internal Transfer Policy

The University Archives is open to transfer of materials from ERAU colleges, departments, clubs and teams that are of institutional value, historical relevance, in good condition and within the scope of our collections.

Reach out to the Archives Librarian or the Hunt Library Director to discuss potential contributions, schedule delivery of materials, or if you have any questions.

Please be advised that materials dropped off without prior arrangement will not be added to the collection.
